OPEN: 12/16/2002

CLOSE: 01/31/2003

POSITION VACANT: Deputy Director, Division of Financial Management (DFM), Office of Budget, Finance and Award Management (BFA).

LOCATION: Arlington, VA

SALARY RANGE: ES-1 to ES-3 (currently $125,972 - $137,901)

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Qualified Applicants

Announcement is for a career appointment.

STATEMENT OF DUTIES: The Division of Financial Management is responsible for producing funds control, payroll and disbursing services, and maintaining accounting systems to manage the financial aspects of NSF operations and to produce timely and accurate data for financial and budgetary purposes. The incumbent serves as Deputy Director, Division of Financial Management, and participates fully with the Division Director in the management of the Division. This includes: policy development, assisting the Division Director in managing a staff of approximately 34 professional and support personnel responsible for the development, coordination and direction of financial management policies, programs and operations as well as the design of modern automated business management systems. In the absence of the Division Director, the Deputy performs the responsibilities of that position, which reports to the Director, Office of Budget, Finance and Award Management (BFA), who serves as the agency's Chief Financial officer. Information about DFM and their services can be found on their website at www.nsf.gov/bfa/dfm/start.htm.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

EXECUTIVE/MANAGERIAL

Essential

1. Leading Change. Demonstrated ability to develop and implement an organizational vision that integrates key national and program goals, priorities, values and other factors. Inherent to it is the ability to balance change and continuity – to continually strive to improve customer service and program performance within the basic Government framework, to create a work environment that encourages creative thinking, and to maintain focus, intensity and persistence, even under adversity.
2. Leading People. Demonstrated ability to design and implement strategies that maximize employee potential and foster high ethical standards in meeting the organization's vision, mission, and goals. Includes the ability to promote quality through the effective use of performance standards and assessment. Includes leveraging diversity, promoting developmental opportunities for staff, fostering commitment and team spirit, and constructively resolving conflicts.
3. Results Driven Leadership. Demonstrated knowledge and ability in planning, prioritizing, and coordinating both operational and policy program activities in financial management and to stress accountability and continuous improvement. Includes the ability to make timely and effective decisions and to produce results through strategic planning and the implementation and evaluation of programs and policies.
4. Business Acumen. Demonstrated ability to acquire and administer human, financial, material and information resources in a manner that instills public trust and accomplishes the organization's mission and to take advantage of new technologies to enhance the effectiveness of decision making. Includes demonstrated ability in recruiting and selecting staff, allocating financial resources, and managing budgetary process.
5. Building Coalitions/Communication. Demonstrated ability to explain, advocate, and express facts and ideas in a convincing manner, and negotiate with individuals and groups internally and externally. Involves the ability to develop an expansive professional network with other organizations, and to identify the internal and external politics that impact the work of the organization. It also includes the ability to interact constructively with Federal officials, representatives of professional organizations, and the public sector.

PROFESSIONAL/TECHNICAL

Essential

1. Advanced degree and/or recognized independent certification in field such as accounting, financial and grants management, finance, business administration, economics, public administration or information systems.
2. In depth knowledge of and experience with budgeting; financial and cost accounting and reporting concepts and principles; performance measurement; and internal management control and accountability processes.
3. Managerial or other practical involvement in the design, implementation, integration, operation or evaluation of financial management systems in large complex organizations and in the use of automated tools to disseminate and receive information.
4. Knowledge of current and emerging issues and developments in the financial and business fields, including a knowledge of and ability to apply innovative financial management techniques. Includes ability to communicate orally and in writing to key executive officials (examples could include audit committees, financial auditors, key external stake holders).

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Senior Executive Service (SES) covers managerial positions above GS-15 in the Federal Service. Persons appointed to the SES are eligible for health benefits, life insurance, social security, Federal retirement and thrift savings plan coverage, and participate in the Federal leave system. Career appointees are eligible for bonuses based on performance in addition to base pay. Competitive status is not required, veteran's preference does not apply and there are no grade restrictions. New appointees to the SES are required to serve a one-year probationary period. Final selection of career appointees requires the approval of the U.S. Office of Personnel Management. OPM approval will be based on the selectee's background in the following 5 executive core qualification areas: (1) Leading Change, (2) Leading People, (3) Results Driven Leadership, (4) Business Acumen, and (5) Building Coalitions/Communication. These areas are incorporated in the 5 executive/managerial requirements for the position. Information about the leadership requirements for SES-level positions is available on the U.S. Office of Personnel Management website at www.opm.gov/ses/handbook.html. The individual selected will be required to file an "Executive Branch Personnel Public Financial Disclosure Report" (SF-278) in accordance with the Ethics in Government Act of 1978.

EVALUATION METHOD

Applicants will be screened for basic eligibility according to the essential qualification requirements. Eligible applicants will be reviewed by an Evaluation Panel according to criteria based on the qualification requirements. The best qualified candidates will be referred to the appropriate official who will recommend selection. All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, political affiliation, marital status, physical disability, age, membership in an employee organization or other non-merit reason. Any applicant may request information or appeal the procedures and operations of the merit staffing process to the Executive Resources Board.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Please ensure that your application includes the documents listed below and reflects your background in terms of the qualification requirements for the position.
